I RISE TO REMARK

BY JOHN PHILLIPS

California is beginning to celebrate her anniversaries. The California delegation in the Congress started the ball rolling last week, by inviting the House leaders to a luncheon in what we call the Speaker's dining room, at which all the food served came from California by plane. The three air services cooperated and I was surprised myself at the results. It was a very fine way to begin the celebrations of the centennial of peace. It may show the world that might is not necessarily the only barrier between nations. Canada above, and Mexico below, with the United States in between are excellent examples of how all nations ought to get along with each other.

We had orange juice and fish and fresh vegetables, and dates and nuts, and the best strawberries I ever ate, fully vine ripened. I contend that they must have come from the 22nd District. If I had my way, no California fruits would leave the state until they were fully ripened, or as near as possible so. I had a couple of boxes of Riverside and Orange County oranges recently, fully tree ripened, and the people back here had never tasted anything like them. Even the wife of one of my Florida friends called me up to say how good they were, and that's something! The point is, the California oranges we get in the east are picked too long before they are ripe, so as to reach the early market, and we build up about as much dissatisfaction as we do that enthusiastic desire we hope to have for California commodities. Personally, I think this would do as much to solve the surplus problem as marketing agreements or support prices.

Coming back to the luncheon, we were celebrating the 100th anniversary of the signing of the treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo, which ended the Mexican war and under which the western lands, of which California is a part, were ceded to the United States. Think of all that has taken place!

In 1846 California had a population of 10,000, of which, so the record says, "2000 were foreigners," that is, they were from the United States, the other 8,000 were of Spanish-Mexican descent. By the time the treaty was signed in 1848, the number had grown to 25,000. Most were in the north.

Gold had been discovered. The rush was beginning. California never had the status of a territory. The bitter feud between slave and free states prevented that. We held a Constitutional convention in 1849 and on September 9th, 1850, California became a state. It was a compliment to the framers of our state constitution that we never had to have territorial status.

100 years ago, Los Angeles had a population of 1610. Today the population is over 2,000,000 and 20,000 people come to California each month, 14,000 of whom head for L. A. On July 1st of last year the state's population was 8,822,688 and it has grown every day since then.

Today California has 23 Congressmen, not including her two Senators. After the census of 1950 and the reapportionment of 1951, we will propably have 30 Congressmen. W are still growing. I rise to remark that there is one thing that hasn't changed in the 100 years.

When the first two Congressmen-elect Edward Gilbert and George W. Wright, and the first two Senators, Fremont and Gwin, arrived in Washington early in 1850, they reported that they found the Congress in a state of confusion. I said that there was one thing that hadn't changed in 100 years.

Marion Precie returned last week from a few days spent in El Centro, on business, looking after his sugar beet farming interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Flynn and family recently moved into the Tom House property on Watson street, which they have leased for one year.

Business Men Enjoy Weekly Breakfast Meet

The business men' association met Tuesday morning for its regular breakfast session at the Pine Cafe. Two new members were present who were introduced to the group, A. R. McArdle, of McArdle's sales and service in the west part of town, and E. V. Corby, the new owner and operator of the barber shop formerly known as "Al's Barber Shop."

A report was given by the chairman of the committee in charge of securing post cards to be sent to all residents of this area regarding solicitors and peddlers, a project worked out in connection with the Buena Park business men's division of the chamber of commerce. It was voted unanimously to pay for the cards and the cost of mailing.

A discussion of the group regarding the forming of a ball team sponsored by the merchants resulted in the elimination of the idea entirely for this year. It was felt that it was too late in the season to form a team, buy the necessary uniforms and equipment, and get generally underway. The group did not favor organization of any kind of teams at this time, for participation in games locally.

Bob Poor, a resident of Garden Grove and reporter for the Long Beach Press-Telegram, distributed brochures recently printed and published in that city which are in the nature of a directory, and are valuable as publicity to new residents who move into the town.

Lynx Take Detroit Opener

Behind Alsup's one-hit pitching the Detroit girls fell prey to Buena Park's Lynx at Amerige Park Wednesday evening 3 to 0. The series continues tonight and then jumps to Monday and Tuesday nights, May 24 and 25.

Playing hosts in more ways than one, the Lynx will entertain Detroit at a picnic Saturday afternoon in Anaheim Park.

Manager Hill announces that a game has been scheduled for the Lynx Kittens, the junior team on Wednesday evening at Artesia against a Hawaiian Gardens team.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Boyd, 6201 Lincoln avenue, attended the funeral on May 10 of Donald Charles Popovich, a nephew, at White's funeral home in Bellflower. The lad was only eighteen years of age and death was caused by a heart condition.

Only Two More FREE ISSUES

For the past few weeks the Cypress Enterprise has been delivered to your door free of charge, as a means of introducing the local paper to you. This practice will be continued for the remainder of the issues published in May.

In the meantime, one of our local organizations, the Cypress elementary school P-T.A. has been prevailed upon to send an authorized representative to call upon you for your subscription of two dollars ($2.00) per year, so that you may continue to receive the paper regularly through the mail. Mrs. Richard Hathcock is chairman of the committee in charge of the subscription campaign. Remember, only two more free issues delivered to your door!

E. V. Corby Is New Barber Here

The barber shop formerly known as Al's Barber shop was recently purchased by E. V. Corby, of Gardena, from Al Campbell. Mr. and Mrs. Corby expect to move here from Gardena, where he was employed for over a year, as soon as a suitable place can be found.

Although they will be new residents, the Corby's were familiar with Cypress before locating here. They moved from Howard, Kansas, to California four years ago, and had been neighbors back in the midwest to the James Colburn family for many years.

Popular Park Girl Will Be Bride In August

Miss Helen Dukes and Jack Kaiser of Santa Ana announced their engagement at a family dinner held at the Dukes home on Sunday. They plan to be married in August.

The bride - elect is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Dukes of Ninth street. She is a graduate of the Grand Avenue school, Fullerton high school and junior college, and is now employed as a secretary and receptionist at the Santa Ana Clinic.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thompson, 8901 Hoffman street, in Cypress, attended the funeral recently of E. F. Wagner, of South Gate, who was electrocuted. He was Mrs. Thompson's brother-in-law.

Famous Author Addresses County Librarians At Buena Park Meeting

The Buena Park district library entertained at the spring meeting of the Orange county library club at a dinner in the Woman's club house last Thursday evening, May 13. The event was arranged for by the librarian, Mrs. Marie Callaway, her staff and the members of the local library board.

The guests, representing libraries throughout Orange county, were especially delighted with the message presented by the guest speaker, Miss Margaret Lee Runbeck, writer of short stories and author of many best-selling novels. When introducing her, Mrs. Callaway called attention to the fact that Miss Runbeck's latest book, "Hope of Earth,' published late in 1947, has already sold over a quarter million copies. She is also author of "Time for each other," "Our Miss Boo" and "The great answer."

Miss Runbeck paid tribute to librarians, and recognized the fact that a strong bond exists between librarians and an author. She felt that each one connected with writing in any way has a standard to uphold and an obligation to the public in what it is asked to read. She herself feels, when taking up the valuable time of a reader through the pages of a magazine or book, that she should give something worth-while in return. The speaker, in evaluating the art of learning to write, said that it is not so much to learn how to write so that people will read, which is really the smallest part, but that the important thing that matters the most is what to write.

Striking an ominously serious note, the author of " Hope of earth" impressed the audience with that fact that many wonderful changes are being wrought in the world today and that our patterns of living are being radically changed. We are in a little space when the world needs reassurances. We need to solve our own individual problems and those of the universe. The world needs to look happy. One of the most forgotten words which could best be applied today is the first word found in the Psalms, "blessed," and she likened the Book of Psalms to a blue print of how to be a blessed person. Einstein has said that unless there is an essential change in people's thinking, we are doomed. Miss Runbeck believes that librarians and writers are in a position to help change the thinking of the rest of the world.

Musical selections, consisting of vocal solos by Carl Gilbert, accompanied by Mrs. H. L. Dawson, and a solo on the French horn by Dale Heinmiller, accompanied by John Gilbert concluded the formal program.

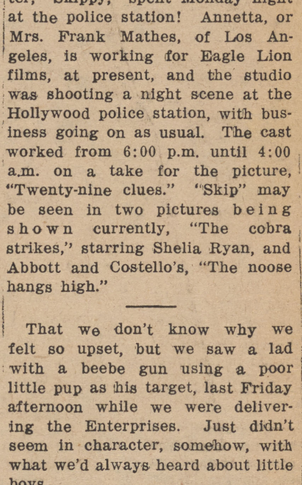
Judge's Campaign Leaves Little Time For Home

Superior Judge Robert Gardner's wife served notice today that she'd like to cook a meal for him once in awhile; she has a new recipe book she'd like to try.

Beside that, she'd like for her children, Nancy, 5, and new-born Patricia, to get a little better acquainted with their father, who has been quite busy lately. During the past few months, he has managed only to spend weekends with them.

It all came about because Judge Gardner is campaigning to succeed himself on the bench of Dept. 4, Superior Court, to which he was appointed by Gov. Warren.

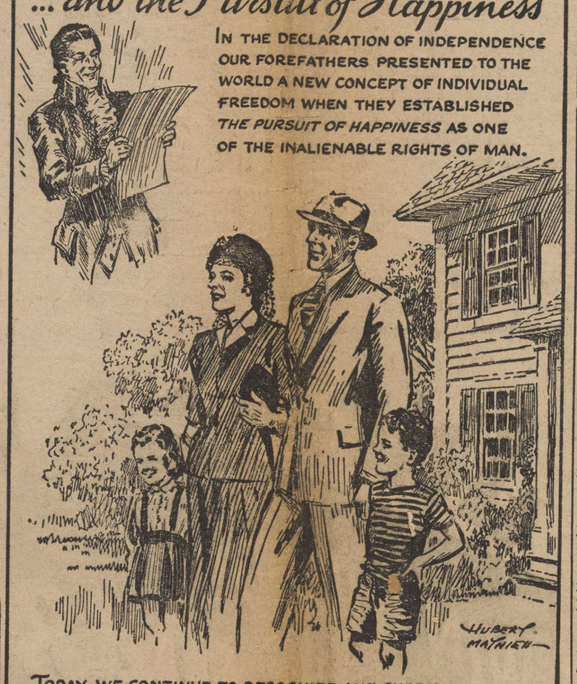
Since then, Judge Gardner has been making acquaintance of a lot of people he didn't know before. He has talked at 78 banquets and luncheons, and attended about 35 other affairs, with the result that he does not find much time to get home, except when the children are asleep.



Judge Robert Gardner, whose Campaign for election to bench of Dept. 4, which he now occupies by appointment, keeps him away from home.

OUR DEMOCRACY——by Mat

... and the Pursuit of Happiness



IN THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE OUR FOREFATHERS PRESENTED TO THE WORLD A NEW CONCEPT OF INDIVIDUAL FREEDOM WHEN THEY ESTABLISHED THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS AS ONE OF THE INALIENABLE RIGHTS OF MAN.
HUBERT MATHIEU

TODAY WE CONTINUE TO RECOGNIZE AND CHERISH THIS RIGHT OF THE INDIVIDUAL—WITHOUT ANY RESTRICTIONS OTHER THAN A PROPER RESPECT FOR THE SAME RIGHTS OF HIS NEIGHBORS—TO CHOOSE HIS OWN GOALS, TO SET HIS OWN SIGHTS, TO DREAM AND FULFILL HIS DREAMS.

THIS FREEDOM FOR THE BUILDING OF A FULL AND HAPPY LIFE IS A CARDINAL PRINCIPLE OF TRUE DEMOCRACY.

IT'S BEING SAID -- IN CYPRESS

That we never did make a point of mentioning the results evident around town from clean-up, fix-up and paint-up week proclaimed a few weeks ago. Have you noticed the "new look" that the All-In-All Stores, Inc., has achieved? Pic[illegible]ler road and Lincoln where the pretty. Several other places of business up and down the avenue had their faces lifted, as it where. Even the fire department got busy and scrubbed the street in front of the building which houses the fire engine. And many of the homes around town show results of actual participation in the community effort toward tidying up the city. Congratulations, all.

That Mrs. Frank Lyen's daughter, "Skippy," spent Monday night at the police station! Annetta, or Mrs. Frank Mathes, of Los Angeles, is working for Eagle Lion films, at present, and the studio was shooting a night scene at the Hollywood police station, with business going on as usual. The cast worked from 6:00 p.m. until 4:00 a.m. on a take for the picture, "Twenty-nine clues." "Skip" may be seen in two pictures being shown currently, "The cobra strikes," starring Shelia Ryan, and Abbott and Costello's, "The noose hangs high."

That we don't know why we felt so upset, but we saw a lad with a beebe gun using a poor little pup as his target, last Friday afternoon while we were delivering the Enterprises. Just didn't seem in character, somehow, with what we'd always heard about little boys.

That Tuesday was a fruitlessly busy day for near-excitements. The fire alarm sounded in the morning and all was tense, except probably the person who hung up without giving any information. Later in the day brakes screeched and we heard all the noises on the busy street which usually prelude a crash. Fortunately, this one at Lincoln and Walker was averted. Later we hurried to the corner of [illegible]ler road and Lincoln where the state highway patrol was in command of a situation to which there did not seem to be an answer. The lady was scratched and bleeding, but was calmly smoking a cigarette and no cars appeared to be involved.

That when you hear it being said in Cypress, "Why don't you get a horse?" it's no joke. We recognized Danny Reed astride one of the beautiful ponies out for an airing last Saturday. Reminded us that the last time we rode (?—we use the term loosely) we spent the ensuing four days in a hospital bed. The horse and wagon engaged in utility hauling in town got quite tangled in traffic the other mornng at Lincoln and Walker, but everything turned out for the best and the traffic got unsnarled. The tourists seemed more surprised than the horse!

That we had a caller in the office on the subject of traffic with an idea that shows that people are giving thought and attention to the need to control traffic through Cypress, which is good. We need more residents to show just such concern. William M. Betry has promised to present his idea through the proper channels. By the way, why don't we ALL make it a point to be present at the next meeting of the West Orange county safety council at the school house?

That we were given and ad for the classified section which we pondered over and decided to ignore — "for sale, two pair of shoes; owner returning to Oklahoma!" First, because it's notorious information that shoe maker's children are supposedly always in need of shoes, and second because we don't want Jo Addington to leave us for good. But Jo is adamant. (There, that will give HER something to ponder over on the long bus trip to the midwest.) The town will average several pots of coffee per week to the good, but we'll miss you, so hurry back, gal!

The Richard Wallace's are entertaining Dick's nephew, George Haig, who is being discharged from the navy.

Tom Morgan of Del Rio, California, visited Tuesday night and Wednesday morning with his brother, James Morgan, and family at 5561 Camp street. He was en route home from a four weeks' visit with friends and relatives in Oklahoma.

Newly Organized VFW Post In High Gear With Election

More than the required number of men needed to organize a Veteran of Foreign Wars Post in Cypress have signed up and paid the initial fee. Application for a charter has been sent in and formal institution will take place at a public ceremony on Sunday afternoon, June 13, according to Viggo P. Mallin, second district chief of Staff who has been instrumental in Organizing the unit.

Twenty-seven men signed the roster as charter members and several more are expected to join to swell the number to fifty. Charter members are as follows Oren B. Harvey, Bruce Quarry, M.E. Jennings, Richard Hathcock, R. L. Barnhart, J. O. Sutphin, Jr., G. C. Porter, E. M. Mitchell, a transfer from Glendale post, C. E. Daniel, D. W. Wedeking, Carl Markel,W. R. Dye, G. A. Loney, Roger Siples, R. B. O'Leary, L. Y. Mori,C. W. Biggs, a transfer from Long Beach; Rick Townswick, L. R. Hyatt, F. R. Buzzo, T. M. Priddy, Thyron Taylor C. E. Avels, H. C. Ross, J. A. Tarlton, Glen Begley and A. H. Strempel, a transfer from Anaheim.

At the meeting held Wednesday evening the members elected officers for the coming year: Charles W. Biggs, 8151 Gay street, Commander; Ray E. Lucas, 5632 Vonnie Lane, sr. vice commander; Carl Markel, 5551 Vonnie Lane, jr. vice commander; Bruce Quarry, 5552 Vonnie Lane, quartermaster; Ernest mitchell, 8862 Cypress Avenue, chaplain; H. J. Kreissler, 8212 South Gay street. judge advocate; G. A. Loney, 5531 Vonnie Lane, surgeon; trustee for three years, R. B. O'Leary, 5541 Vonnie Lane; trustee for two years, Don Wedeking, 5532 Vonnie Lane; trustee for one year, Carl J. Sanders, Jr., 4782 East Crescent avenue.

In addition to the charter members, several more have joined and the meeting next Wednesday evening, at the school house, will stress membership. All those eligible are urged to contact one of the officers or plan to be present at the next meeting.

Buena Park Home Town Day Is Saturday

The largest and finest parade ever — the best horse exhibition and show — more downright good entertainment than the old town has ever seen is promised for Saturday, May 22, when the Business Men's Division of the Chamber of Commerce stages its second annual celebration. That's the word from the committee in charge of the big affair this year and Marvin Wangrud, program chairman, reports that even though the deadline for programing the parade entries was Monday noon, the last minute calls for applications are keeping him busy.

Mrs. V. T. Stephens who is planning the "oldtimers' pot-luck," a gathering of pioneers and other old residents at the Congregational church, states that the luncheon will be served promptly at 12 o'clock noon in order that the group may watch the parade from chairs placed along Grand Avenue in front of the church.

The pot-luck luncheon will be the opening event of the afternoon and a great many of the pioneer residents have already assured Mrs. Stephens of their intention to be present.

Following the parade, which will definitely get under way at 1:00 o'clock according to General Chairman Frank Sullivan, the awards decided on by the judges will be presented to the winners at the judges stand located at the show grounds, Grand Avenue at Commonwealth. Presentations will be made by Carl Gilbert, superintendent of Buena Park schools.

The next feature of the afternoon also at the show grounds, will be a concert by the Beeman family, the famous family western band who play regularly at Knott's Ghost Town and who make recordings of their numbers.

Cypress Garage Is Burglarized

Some time during the night Saturday or early Sunday morning, the Cypress Garage was broken into and four or five dollars taken from the cash register. The exact amount is not known, but it was not a large sum.

The garage is owned and operated by two brothers, C. T. and L. W. Davis. To date the culprit or culprits have not been apprehended. The county sheriff's office found fingerprints available and an investigation is being made.

Seventh Graders Presented In Operetta Here

"Tom Sawyer," the story beloved by all children, was presented as an operetta Tuesday evening in the Cypress school auditorium by members of the seventh grade class. Dialogue was directed by Walter Zebrowski, class teacher, and the music and dances were under the direction of Myrtha Baber.

Jonathan Wright made a perfect Tom Sawyer and Monte Ziebell made a good Huckleberry Finn. Others in the cast were Becky Thatcher, Beverly Cook; Joe Harper, Fred Poor; Aunt Polly, Lois Valentine; Mary, Gail Rathbun; Sid, James Baber; Reverend Walters, Lewis Wortz; Amy Lawrence, Betty Murphy; Alfred Temple, Kennon Laird; Ben Rogers, Albert Van Klaveren; Widow Douglas, Delores Coehlo; Injun Joe, Leon Taylor; Dr. Robinson, Norman Adams; Judge Thatcher, Rex Harsh; Susie, Stella Lopez; Gracie, Frances Plantinga; Sally, Anna Nose; Muff Potter, Ross Mester; Pard, Andy Johnson; Jim, Jimmy Iwashita; Maid at Amy's, Shirley Boudreau; Billy Fisher, Bart Washburn; sunflowers, Peggy Flynn, Shirley Boudreau, Stella Lopez, Delores Coehlo and Frances Plantinga; old men and skeletons, Kennon Laird, Norman Adams, James Baber, Erling McKinzie, Kenneth Schelling and Bart Washburn.

The play depicted various episodes in the life of Tom Sawyer including the fence whitewashing, the killing in the graveyard by Injun Joe, on pirate's island and lost in the cave with Becky Thatcher.

A silver offering was taken with the money to go in a fund to buy athletic uniforms.

Pupils Rewarded By Special Trip From Centralia

Thirteen pupils of Centralia school enjoyed the student council award trip to Bixby Botanical gardens in Santa Ana Canyon Saturday afternoon in company with the principal and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Dysinger.

Leaving in the school bus at 9:30 o'clock the group made a tour of the gardens and heard Dr. P. Munz, botanist at the gardens, give an interesting lecture on what is being done in the way of research there. He mentioned that a study is being made of cover crops for erosion protection in this state and of the hybridizing work being done. Many of their seeds are shipped to England and Europe where they are highly prized.

After lunch the group made a tour of the nursery.

The student council which has been in operation this year is carried on among the pupils of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades and five points are gained by attendance, punctuality and behavior with a maximum of 75 points to be earned each week. At the end of the term, the six high point earners in each room are taken on a trip as a reward. Thirteen made the trip on Saturday because two students had a tie score.

Making the trip from the eighth grade were Billie Marie Tidwell, Jeanette Koss, Joan Felt, Elizabeth Van Hunick, Gladys Andrus, Evelyn Ybarra, Margaret Colbaugh, and Albert Lopez. From the sixth and seventh grade room were Barbara Galloway, Wilhelmina Van Hunick, Judy Belle Wicker, Asteria Chaidez, Julia Macias, Paul Andrus and Phyllis Flores.

Members of the student council are Perry Stevens, president; Joan Felt, Alphonse Slofnia and Wilhelmina Van Hunick.

THIS AND THAT

And now the helicopter, already in use by the Forest service for fire fighting and for re-seeding mountain areas, as well as overcoming blight and disease, is revolutionizing methods. The helicopter also makes possible air spraying and seeding on small patches, and its down draft gives a new and valuable service in many ways.

Officials of Los Angeles county fair at Pomona have selected "100 Years of Progress" as the theme for the return of the big exposition following its war-time service as an important military installation. Cooperating with the state centennial commission the fair will be presented as Southern California's major fall contribution to the centennial year commemorations. Women will have 1287 opportunities to enter specimens of their homework. The 2692 cash prizes represent a substantial increase over previous years. This information comes with the announcement that premium books containing detailed information and directions will be ready for mailing June 1 in reply to requests directed to the fair association offices in Pomona. The fair opens Friday, September 17, and continues 17 days through October third. During this time it is expected that a million visitors will pass through the gates.

Mrs. Jennie A. Barnett Dies While Visiting Son's Home In Covina

Mrs. Jennie A. Barnett, a resident of Cypress for the past 29 years, passed away Tuesday at the home of her son, Emmett Barnett, 228 School street, Covina, where she had been visiting. She had been in poor health for some time and had celebrated her 63rd birthday anniversary the day before her death. In her younger days, Mrs. Barnett was prominent in parent-teacher work, being a past president of the local association, and was active in the Cypress Community club. She was a member of the White Temple Methodist church of Anaheim.

Surviving her are five sons, John E. Barnett of Escondido, Robert L. Barnett of Bakersfield, Earl R. Barnett of Rio Bravo, Dr. Clair Barnett of Venice, Emmett E. Barnett of Covina; one daughter, Mrs. Rita Jean Bowen of Fullerton; nine grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Ada Hock of Long Beach; three brothers, T. T. Thompson of Baldwin Park, Mell Thompson and Miles Thompson of Oklahoma.

Funeral services will take place in the chapel of the Backs Campbell and Kaulbars mortuary in Anaheim on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rollo E. Dunham will officiate. Interment will be made in Loma Vista Memorial Park.

WHAT'S WORTH-WHILE?

She's young, she's attractive and she is pretty. Her boss was out of town, and she was "holding the fort," so to speak, in his absence. Our call was in the line of duty, and we had not been aware of his absence from town. There was only one customer in the establishment and we paused for a moment's relaxation from the heat and the dust outside.

For no particular reason, the subject of advertising done by her boss became the topic of the conversation, at her instigation. We were amazed at the vehemence with which she attacked the act of calling attention through the columns of the local paper to the service one has to sell, and also her attack on the very existence of a weekly paper in Cypress. Her attitude revealed that she felt there was not one thing to be learned from the columns of the press, locally. She questioned the need to call attention through the medium of advertising to a place which she felt everyone in town knew existed already, and as for news, she heard all the gossip all day long, anyway.

We felt a little sorry. How can you explain the intangible that makes up a town — schools, churches, clubs, and civic organizations? And why do the citizens responsible for the well-being of the community see that as it grows it is provided with proper culture such as concerts, lectures, recreation facilities, etc.? And why is it that in every progressive podunk center to the biggest city there is this agency for knitting together the various interests of a growing community and calling attention to the business and expansion of its individual members as it grows, which is the newspaper?

She's young, she's attractive, she's pretty. But she's not the type who reads editorials. Let's be careful that we don't find some of these days that we are still "little-town" living in a "big town" without having developed into "big town" thinking.

Highway Post Office Mail Starts Soon

Highway Post Office between Los Angeles and Laguna, including Buena Park will start rolling sometime between tomorrow and May 31 or shortly thereafter, Postmaster Carl Brenner announced this weekend.

Designed to speed pickup and delivery service between Orange county cities and metropolitan Los Angeles, the service is one of nine similar ones to begin throughout the nation this month.

Stops along the Laguna - Los Angeles route will be made at Maywood, Bell, Downey, Norwalk, Artesia, Buena Park, Fullerton, Anaheim, Garden Grove, Santa Ana, Costa Mesa, Newport Beach, Balboa Island, and Corona del Mar. Schedules have not been received at the local office.

Other California routes scheduled are Los Angeles, Long Beach and San Diego; Los Angeles and San Pedro; and Willits and San Francisco.

Schedule For Home Town Day

One of the outstanding mounted groups in Orange county will execute the difficult square dance on horse back to open the horse exhibition. Showing of all equine entries before the judges stand and awarding of cups and ribbons will take place at that time.

The committee was fortunate in securing the fine western band, the Hollywood Ramblers who will entertain during the period after the horse show while the stage is being set for the amateur show which Henry Legari will emcee next on the program.

Harold Grove, chairman of prizes and awards will preside at the drawing to follow late in the afternoon. Three valuable prizes, an Automatic washing machine, a portable radio and a Sunbeam Mixmaster will be awarded to holders of tickets. The tickets are being given away to customers all week by merchants in Buena Park and a box at the judges stand at the show grounds will be provided for the stubs to be deposited on Saturday.

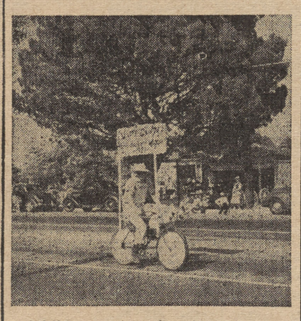
An all day feature of this year's celebration will be "The Law West of Grand Avenue" a kangeroo court set up to handle "offenders," who are not wearing their Home Town Day booster buttons. Sheriff Lewis and Judge Ritter from Ghost Town will preside.

Judges of the parade entries and the horse show this year have been announcd as E. T. Gaines, T. J. Gowen, W. J. McCold and Sheriff James Musick. Parade Grand Marshall will be Lynn M. Green with five aides, G. R. Cole, Wayne Hart, W. C. Pafford, Harland Hart and J. G. Berle.

Cooperating with the celebration committee to provide a full day's events, but not a part of the business men's division arrangements, are three evening affairs of interest. The American Legion Auxiliary will serve a ham dinner from 5:00 to 7:30 and the Legion Post is sponsoring a dance with the music of Bill Willeford and his band from 9:00 p.m. on. Both will be held at the Legion Hall on Whittaker street. Gus Thornrose will show moving pictures at the show grounds starting at 8:00 p.m. and will feature many views of Buena Park past and present including aerial shots. Views of the Santa Ana Freeway under construction in the city will give some idea of the way Buena Park can expect the freeway to look when it comes through.

Seating accommodations for a large crowd will be provided at the show grounds for the bleachers at Fullerton high school football field are to be erected on fifth street facing south under the supervision of grounds chairman L. V. Moore.

Truly the only thing needed to make this celebration Buena Park's largest and best is a vast crowd of happy people to see and enjoy it. The publicity chairman, Paul Kroesen, states that plenty of people have been invited, with advertising placed in eight newspapers in neighboring towns, 4000 direct mail advertising brochures issued, newspaper, radio and billboard publicity and 5,000 programs of the events and parade entries printed to help the public enjoy the program. In addition, a caravan of cars bearing banners and public address systems will make a whirlwind tour of neighboring towns and countryside bearing the invitation to as many as will listen.



Adding comic relief in the Home Town Day parade last year was the owner of Wilsey's Dairy astride a bicycle depicting the first method of delivery employed by his

Participating in the celebration where Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wadsworth of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wadsworth of Bakersfield; Miss Paula Parker of Long Beach and the families of the two celebrants.

Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Sales motored to Bakersfield where they were overnight guests of the Lloyd Wadsworths.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis L. Bruce are announcing the birth of a new son at St. Joseph's hospital on May 10. He has been named Robert Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Lowry have sold their home on Cherry street and are residing temporarily in Buena Park.

The many friends of Mrs. Hattie Poland will be pleased to learn that she is improving from a serious illness at the Los Alamitos sanatarum.

Word has been received from Lodgepole, Nebraska, of the sudden death of Will Span, uncle of Mrs. Leo Dunn of this community.

The Good Neighbors club was entained in the Long Beach home of Mrs. Myrtle McFerrin last Wednesday. Nineteen members and friends were present.

Floyd Rogers, secretary of the Buena Park Lions Club is shown above turning a check for $1200 over to L. W. Taylor, head of the American Cancer Society drive in Orange county. This amount was double the quota set for the club and Taylor stated that it was the largest single check he had received.

CAN YOU SOLVE THIS EASY PUZZLE?

Only 2 Poppies are the same! Can you find them?

LOOK AT THE PICTURES OF THE POPPIES ABOVE. They're California's State Flower. Study them carefully. Select the two you think are exactly alike! After making your selection, fill in the coupon in the lower right hand corner of this page and mail it immediately to Editor, Poppy Game, Press-Telegram Publishing Co., Long Beach 12, Calif.

If you succeed in finding the two poppies exactly the same, we will give you 150 points and send you full particulars of this interesting contest so that you can learn how to earn the necessary points to win the NEW 1948 PACKARD SEDAN or the NEW 1948 PONTIAC TORPEDO SEDAN or any one of the other big prizes.

200 points wins First Prize; 199 points wins Second Prize and 198 points wins Third Prize. The next 10 winners will receive a genuine Dormeyer Food Mixer; the next 20 winners win a smart, new RCA Portable Radio, and the next 17 winners will receive their choice of either a Sunbeam Toastmaster or a Brunswick Bowling Ball.

Everyone who qualifies will be presented with a useful Kitchen Pastry Kit regardless of whether he wins one of the 50 major prizes. Any man, woman, boy or girl residing within the boundaries shown on the official map at the left and who is not an employe of the Press-Telegram or a member of a Press-Telegram employe's family, is eligible to enter. All entries must be submitted on the coupon at right. Be sure to print or write plainly. An entire family may take part in this game, but only one prize will be awarded to any one household and only one prize can be won by any one contestant. A committee of five civic leaders, not connected with the Press-Telegram, will be named to determine the winners. In entering this contest all participants agree to accept the judges' decisions as final.

This contest officially started Sunday, May 9, 1948, and closes at 12:00 midnight, Wednesday, June 30, 1948. All entries postmarked later than the closing date and hour will be judged ineligible. Prizes will be awarded within two weeks after the closing date of the contest.

Mail your answer today! Promptness may also win for you the beautiful new PHILCO TELEVISION SET shown at the right!

IMPORTANT

All persons (except those excluded in the rules as set forth herein) living within the boundaries of the official map shown above are eligible to enter.

(Copyright 1948, J. E. Flaherty.)

This and That From hereabouts

The state department of Veterans Affairs offers several timely suggestions for veterans selecting a home for purchase under the provisions of the California Veterans' Farm and Home purchase plan at low interest rate, currently only 3 per cent.

To qualify under the California program a veteran must be a native of California or a resident at the time of entry into the service. The department recommends the following questions be among those answered satisfactorily:

Is the home located so as to be adequately accessible to schools, transportation and shopping facilities? If outside city limits, does it have a reliable and adequate water supply and provision for adequate sewage disposal approved by the county health authorities? Is it in good repair and free from infestation by termites and dry rot?

Does it have a standard and convenient floor plan, with each room of adequate size, shape and location? Does it reasonably conform to surrounding homes as to size and type of architecture, and as to lot size?

The following types of property are not acceptable for purchase under the state plan: business or income property, duplexes, flats of two or more houses on one lot, community driveways, and property not directly accessible from an abutting public street or road.

Full information on the purchase of homes by veterans through the state may be obtained at the Orange County Veterans service center located at 225 North Broadway, Santa Ana, phone 0215 for an appointment. The Service Center also has a representative from the state home loan division of Long Beach in the office on Fridays only.

Public events on Harbor Day, May 22, will include an acquacade at Fort MacArthur, free boat tours of the Los Angeles - Long Beach port area, and a water show off Terminal Island.

The Harbor Day program is part of the overall celebration of national World Trade Week, May 16 - 22. Preparations have been made to accommodate 50,000 visitors expected to journey to the two harbors and view the day-long schedule of events.

All five-year level premium National Service Life Insurance term policies which were issued before January 1, 1946, were automatically extended for an additional period of three years. In other words, all policies taken out before January 1, 1946, can be carried as term insurance for eight years from the date the policy became effective.

NSLI term insurance policies issued after January 1, 1946, can be kept in force a term policies for five years from their date of issuance.

Conversion of term insurance to any one of six, or any combination of the six permanent plans available to veterans, may be made at any time within the term period by application and the payment of the first premium. A physical examination is not required. Veterans are advised that they can convert the entire amount of their term policy or any part of it in multiples of $500. However, you cannot convert less than $1000.

The Los Angeles chamber of commerce and the Conservation Association of Southern California will inaugurate their summer campaign for the prevention of out-of-door fires May 26.

W. S. Rosecrans, president of the association and chairman of the chamber's Water Conservation committee said the deficit in rainfall Southern California has experienced last fall and winter indicates fire danger will be high this summer.

"Southern Californio is admittedly the most hazardous region in the United States from the standpoint of out-of-door fires," Rosecrans said. "Last year from January 1 to October 31 more than 3000 fires occurred in our mountains and foothills and it was not an exceptional season.

"The fact that the population of Southern California continues to be augmented with citizens from parts of the country where a summer fire hazard, such as exists in California, is unknown contributes immeasurably to our hazards," he said.

Plans are being completed for the first annual MardiGras to be held in Ocean Park for five days starting May 28. This event is made possible through the cooperation of the entire Ocean Park amusement pier, the Casino gardens and merchants in the vicinity. Special arrangements are being made to bring the top stars of the picture and radio industries to the festival. Featured will be a beauty contest to determine the Mardi Gras queen and her court.

Judges Campaign Leaves Little Time For Home

Superior Judge Robert Gardner's wife served notice today that she'd like to cook a meal for him once in awhile; she has a new recipe book she'd like to try.

Beside that, she'd like for her children, Nancy, 5, and new-born Patricia, to get a little better acquainted with their father, who has been quite busy lately. During the past few months, he has managed only to spend weekends with them.

It all came about because Judge Gardner is campaigning to succeed himself on the bench of Dept. 4, Superior Court, to which he was appointed by Gov. Warren.

Since then, Judge Gardner has been making acquaintance of a lot of people he didn't know before. He has talked at 78 banquets and luncheons, and attended about 35 other affairs, with the result that he does not find much time to get home, except when the children are asleep.

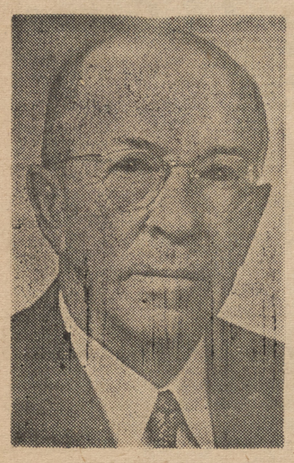
Orange County Deserves the Best



The man who serves Orange County as State Senator should have something to offer besides a sudden interest in politics.

Senator Clyde A. Watson has had 12 years' experience in the State Assembly and Senate. His prestige in the Legislature has given him membership on vital committees, including Agriculture, Fish and Game, Education, Water Problems, Un-American Activities, and others.

Senator Clyde A. Watson knows the problems of Orange County and of California. Senator Clyde A. Watson knows legislative procedure and has won the confidence of his colleagues on the State Senate.

GARDEN HINTS

Sun or Shade

Washington geraniums cannot endure as much sun as common geraniums. In inland sections they should be planted in light shade. Plant them in full sun along the coast, but do not place them in front of white walls which reflect a great deal of heat.

Warning

When in active growth, pelargoniums require negerous amounts of water. However, drainage must be good or the roots may rot. Ordinarily, pelargoniums growing in shade require less water than those growing in full sun. However, if tree roots are present, more watering than usual may be necessary. Potted pelargoniums in warm, sheltered patios and terraces dry out rapidly, and may require watering every day, or at least every other day. A good way to prevent excessive evaporation is to place the pots in jardinieres or other containers which absorb some of the heat. Another way to prevent excessive evaporation is to grow pelargoniums in glazed pots.

Never water pelargoniums overhead, as water on the leaves causes leaf spot. Heavy overhead watering is also detrimental to the flowers.

Fertilizing

Pelargoniums, like all plants, should be fertilized only when in active growth and in strong, healthy condition. A sickly plant is not benefited by feeding.

In general, feeding may start just about the time the buds begin to form, and should stop when the full bloom period is reached. Fertilizer may be applied in liquid form (3 tablespoons of commercial fertilizer dissolved in 1 gallon of water) at the rate of a pint to a 6-inch pot; or dry, at the rate of 1 level tablespoon to a 6 or 8 inch pot, watering in immediately afterward. Never fertilize a plant that is dry. Be sure that the soil in the pot is moist so that there will be no danger of burning the roots.

MRS. OLIVE WILLIAMS PHONE AN 2-8279

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Appleby and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lee spent the weekend in Las Vegas.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wurtz and children, Ronnie and Carol Anne, left Tuesday morning to make their home in Wichita, Kansas, near the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wurtz. The house at 5246 Crescent formerly occupied by the Wurtz' is now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Elio Ronconi (Betty Valentine) who have recently returned home from a honeymoon in Santa Barbara.

Ray King, who has been a patient in the Community hospital in Long Beach, returned home last Saturday.

George Strempel was home from San Luis Obispo over the weekend during which time he sold his car.

A marriage license was issued over the weekend to George Garland Cook of Artesia and Arnoldene June Martin of Cypress.

Mr. and Mrs. Otho Switzer returned home on Monday from an overnight trip to Harper's ranch near Jamul.

Motoring to Long Beach on Sunday where they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mainard were Mr. and Mrs. William Boeckeler and daughter, Cathy, and two months' old son, David.

Friends of Jack Luther, who was critically injured in an automobile accident near King City last year, and who has been a patient in Long Beach Naval hospital, will be pleased to learn he is now at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Luther, and is regaining the use of his right arm and leg which were paralized as a result of the accident.

Dubert Laird and two sons, Kenneth and Eldon, spent the weekend in Bakersfield visiting relatives.

Alex Petrie is expected home next week from a three months'trip to Iowa where he attended to business in connection with his property there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Strempel and daughters, Joyce and Bernadine, attended the picnic of former residents of Trinidad, Colorado, which was held in Bixby park in Long Beach on Sunday. This picnic is an annual affair and not to be forgotten by home folks, the Trinidad creamery ships ten gallons of ice cream each year to be served at the picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Decker have as their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Smith, brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Decker.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Baird have returned home from a trip to Seattle. They like Washington very much and even consider buying property there.

Linda Rae was the name given to the new daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Avels, 8812 Cypress avenue, in the Cypress Manor tract. The little miss, who was born in the Ontario hospital on May 7, weighed eight pounds, one ounce and is the second child for the Avels who also have a son.

Mrs. May Green is home again after an extended visit with her children in San Francisco and Palo Alto. She is planning on leaving soon for Colorado to visit other children.

Among the girls who modeled at the fashion show in connection with the Job's Daughters tea which was held Saturday in Anaheim where three Cypress girls, Joyce Strempel, Gerry and Eleanor Ausburn. Mrs. A. H. Strempel won one of the door prizes given away.

Mr. and Mrs. Milam Williams had as their dinner guests on Sunday their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Williams and daughter, Irene, of Freeway Park. the two Williams boys spent most of the day flying their model airplanes at the flying field of the Prop Choppers on Grand avenue.

A Guardian Service dinner was held Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Napier on La Salle street. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Donald DeWitt, Mr. and Mrs. William Fleetwood, and Mr. and Mrs. Curt Tartar.

Birthday Is Also Anniversary Of Deckers' Wedding

Festivities in the Howard Decker home on Sunday were in observance of Decker and the 14th wedding anniversary of the couple. Although his birthday was observed on Saturday by dining in Long Beach followed by attending the firemen's dance in Cypress, it was again brought to mind by the decorated birthday cake at the anniversary dinner and gifts from the guests.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Smith and son, Douglas, house guests of the Decker's who are visiting from Houston, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Art Perle of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Konig and children, Wayde, Victor, Jr., and Margaret and the Decker's two sons, Michael and Ray.

Model Plane Enthusiasts Now Have Own Club

Several months ago, Lyman Booth, a model plane enthusiast, conceived the idea of starting a club for the youngsters of the neighborhood and interesting them in model plane building as one way of keeping them occupied in their spare time. If they were going to build planes, that called for a flying field, so he obtained permission from Henry Plou, also the owner of a model plane, to use his vacant property on Grand Avenue near Lincoln. It took quite a bit of work to level, work the ground and get it in good condition and finally fence it before it could be used as a flying field for model planes, a permit had to be obtained from the planning commision and the board of supervisors.

Signed to the petition circulated by Booth were 65 names and last week the planning commission issued the permit to use the field.

The Prop Choppers, as the club has been named meets every Thursday at Booth's service station where large tables are set up and members work on their planes. Last month, the membership numbered 35 paid up members and included not only youngsters but grown-ups as well. Booth keeps a good supply of materials and models on hand for the convenience of the club members. President of the group is Ted Quinn; vice president, Lyle Cannon; and treasurer, Wayne Corrigan.

The Prop Choppers are indeed fortunate in securing a flying field in view of the difficulty of Anaheim's Balsa Butchers have had in securing a location where residents do not object to the noise made by the planes when in flight.

Guests who have been entertained by the C. L. Wickers are their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hart, who are visiting in the Southland from San Antonio, Texas. On Sunday 13 family members gathered in their honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Southward in Riverside. Present from Cypress were the Wickers and their two children, Judy Belle and Jimmy, and Mr. and Mrs. Hart. Last week the Wickers took their guests to Lake Arrowhead.

Nazarene Church Hears Reports At Annual Dinner

The annual dinner of the Cypress church of the Nazarene took place in the missionary hall recently with Mrs. Grace Stogdill, chairman of the committee, in charge.

During the business meeting which followed annual reports were heard from the various department heads. Since the church books closed at the end of April this year, reports were on an 11 months' basis. Lloyd Shirey, Sunday School superintendent, reported that nearly $900 had been raised by the Sunday School and the average attendance was 156 with an increase of 33 per cent over last year.

Work accomplished by the church this year as stated by Mrs. Frank Davis, clerk of the Sunday School board, included a Christian Service training course wth 13 Sunday School teachers receiving certificates, a daily vacation Bible school wth an enrollment of 101, a Rally Day program with 211 in attendance, Easter, Christmas and Children's day programs. Attendance of 256 at Sunday School on Easter broke all previous records and attendance was nearly double that of a year ago.

Other reports were church secretary, Ocie Ferguson; board of trustees, Charles Martin; board of stewards, Mrs. Garce Stogdill; church secretary, Mrs. Noxie Stearns; president of NYPS, Stanley Martin; president of Senior Women's Missionary society, Mrs. Percy Coffman and Young Women's Missionary society, Mrs. Toab Wolford.

The report of the pastor, Eric Jorden, was particularly gratifying. A total of $10,087 was raised by the congregation for all purposes through offerings and tithes. The church owes no money except a small amount on the Sunday School annex which is entirely covered by pledges. The quota of the church for foreign missions has been overpaid nearly three times; an increase of 15 per cent was noted in membership of the church with all other departments also showing increases; two revival meetings were held, a Youth Week revival and a weekend meeting; improvements include the building of the Sunday School annex with a nursery fully equipped with furniture and a loud speaker system, and the redecorating of the parsonage.

Officers elected for the year were Charles Martin, Frank Davis and Ocie Ferguson on the church board as trustees and Mrs. Grace Stogdill, Mrs. Hollis Woodmansee and Mrs. Noxie Stearns, stewards; Lloyd Shirey, Sunday School superintendent; Etta Jean Bodkins, Mrs. Frank Davis, Mrs. J. C. Napier, Leon Ferguson and Hollis Woodmansee, church school board. Mrs. Percy Coffman, president of the Senior Women's Missionary society and Stanley Martin, president of the NYPS, also are included in the church school board by virtue of the offices they hold.

Unusual Show Delights Pupils of Centralia School

Pupils of the Centralia school witnessed an unusual show in the auditorium last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Owen of Los Alamitos presented their three mina birds. These unusual birds are natives of the tropics of Indio-China and have vocal chords which permit them to talk, whistle and sing without even opening their beaks.

Among the feats performed by the birds was whistling the F scale, the wolf call and "Your in the Army Now." The oldest of the birds is two years old, the others being 11 months and 9 months. The money from the show will be used to purchase corsages for the graduating class on commencement night.

Men Guests Cook The Steaks At Their Party

Members of the Junior Woman's club and their families enjoyed a steak fry Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Les Brannan on Lincoln avenue. The men did the honors at the grill. Later the group went indoors and enjoyed a social evening of music and cards.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Lukens and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Costa and son, Mr. and Mrs. Norville Chapman and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Miser and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Marshall and son, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beason and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gaylord, Richard Gaylord, Mrs. Dubert Laird and Bennie Pugh.

SPRING CAKES

Perhaps it's because of the daffodil - yellow color of the sponge cake and the white fluff of the angel food that we think of them in springtime. Now, when eggs are once again plentiful, is the time to bake these cakes.

Served alone, without an icing, they are "simply" delicious but they can be the basis for dozens of more elaborate desserts. For festive occasions, try whipped cream and crushed fresh berries or top them with whipped gelatin or egg whites combined with fruit. They can be used as the basis of refrigerator cakes and are the perfect complement to ice cream. Anyway you feature them, they're "as welcome as the spring."

ANGEL FOOD CAKE
1 C. plus 2 Tbsp. sifted cake flour
1¾ C. granulated sugar
1½ C. egg whites
¼ tsp. salt
1½ tsp. cream of tartar
1 tsp. vanilla
¼ tsp. almond extract

Sift flour, measure, combine with ¾ cup sugar. Sift together 3 times. Have egg whites at room temperature. Beat whites with wire whip in a very large bowl until frothy, add salt and cream of tartar. Continue beating until egg whites will just begin to stand in peaks. Add remaining 1 cup sugar gradually, beating thoroughly. After all sugar has been added, continue to beat mixture until very stiff. Add flavoring. Sift flour and sugar mixture into meringue mixture in fourths, folding in thoroughly. Pour mixture into ungreased tube pan 10x4½ inches. Cut through mixture with spatula to remove air bubbles. Place in cold oven, light oven, set control to 300° F. Bake 25 minutes. Reset control to 375° F. and bake 20 minutes longer. This may be baked at 325° F. 55 to 60 minutes. Remove from oven, turn upside down and let hang in pan until cold.

HOT MILK SPONGE CAKE
1 C. sifted cake flour
1 tsp. double action baking powder
¼ tsp salt
3 eggs, separated
1 C. sugar
2 tsp. lemon juice
6 Tbsp. hot milk

Sift together 3 times flour, baking powder and salt. Beat egg whites until very stiff, add sugar and beat until stiff. Add yolks one at a time, continue beating. Add lemon juice. Fold in flour, a small amount at a time. Stir in milk mixing quickly until batter is smooth. Turn at once into an ungreased tube pan 8x4 inches. Bake at 350° F., 35 to 40 minutes. When done, invert pan one hour or until cold. Or bake in 2 lightly greased 8-inch round pans 25 minutes at 350° F., or one 8x8x2 inch square pan. 45 to 50 minutes at 350° F.

ORANGE CHIFFON
2¼ C. sifted cake flour
1½ C. sugar
3 tsp. double action baking powder
1 tsp. salt
½ C. salad oil
5 unbeaten egg yolks
2 Tbsp. grated orange rind
¾ C. orange juice
1 C. egg whites
½ tsp. cream of tartar

Sift flour, sugar, baking powder and salt together into mixing bowl. Make a "well" and add oil, egg yolks, rind and orange juice. Beat with a spoon until smooth. Place egg whites and cream of tartar in large mixing bowl. Whip until whites form very stiff peaks. Pour egg yolk mixture gradually over egg whites, gently folding just until blended. Do not stir. Pour into ungreased tube pan 10x4 inches deep. Bake 65 minutes in 350° oven. Invert pan to cool and let hang, free of table, until cold. Loosen from sides and tube with spatula. Turn pan over and hit edge sharply on table to loosen.

LADYFINGERS
(2 dozen)
⅔ C. sifted flour
¼ tsp. salt
3 egg whites
¼ C. sugar
3 egg yolks
¾ tsp. vanilla
¼ C. sugar

Line 2 cookie sheets with heavy wrapping paper. Sift flour and salt together. Beat egg whites until stiff. Add ¼ cup sugar gradually and continue beating until very stiff and meringue holds sharp peaks. In a separate bowl beat egg yolks and vanilla until light. Add ¼ cup sugar gradually, beating until light and lemon colored. Sift half of flour on top of yolk mixture; fold in carefully. Repeat with remaining flour. Fold in meringue. Press through pastry tube, or spread with teaspoon, onto paper in strips approximately 4-inches long by ¾ inches wide. Bake 350° oven 15 minutes. Remove from paper and cool on rack. Serve with tea, or use as a basis for refrigerator desserts.

VICTORY POUND CAKE
(1 Loaf, 4x8 inches)
2 C. cake flour
1½ tsp. double-action baking powder
1 tsp. salt
1¼ C. sugar
½ C. shortening
½ C. liquid (Use grated rind and juice from 1 medium-size orange plus enough water to make the ½ C. of liquid
2 eggs

Sift flour; measure; sift with dry ingredients. Add soft shortening and liquid to dry ingredients. Beat hard for 2 minutes. Add eggs, continue beating for 2 more minutes. Pour into greased pan. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) for 1 hour or until done.

KISS CAKE
6 egg whites
2 C. sugar
½ tsp. cream of tartar
1 tsp. vanilla
1 Tbsp. vinegar
peaches or berries

Beat egg whites until stiff. Gradually add sugar cream of tartar, vanilla, and continue beating until mixture stands in high peaks. Fold in vinegar quickly. Pour into pie pan lined with ungreased paper. Bake 1 hour at 325° F. Serve with crushed sweetened fruit.
